Congratulations to Rob Radosti the new Security Manager at John Knox Village

Rob has faithfully served in our Security Department since January 2020 and most recently held the role of Lead Security Officer. During his time at JKV, he has played a vital role in maintaining a safe and secure environment for our residents, employees, and visitors—staffing our entry gatehouses, patrolling our campus, responding to emergency calls, and assisting residents in times of need.

Rob brings more than 24 years of prior law enforcement experience as a Police Officer, including service with the Sanford Airport Police Department and the Lake Helen Police Department. His distinguished career includes being named Police Officer of the Year (2006 and 2011), receiving a Life-Saving Medal in 2012, and serving as a Field Training Officer. Rob is also a U.S. Army Veteran and a graduate of the FDLE Investigations Academy. Throughout his career, Rob has demonstrated professionalism, sound judgment, compassion, and a calm demeanor—qualities that align closely with our campus values of Honesty, Excellence, Accountability, Respect, and Teamwork.

As Rob transitions into this leadership role, we ask for your continued support and cooperation. We are confident that under his guidance, our Security Department will continue to enhance safety, responsiveness, and service across our campus.

Please join us in congratulating Rob on this well-deserved promotion.
