AARP Caregiving Program

On March 23, AARP will present Caregiving, a program addressing one of the most important roles many of us will experience. Whether planning ahead or currently supporting a loved one, participants will learn how to get organized, assess needs and resources, create a caregiving plan-including self-care, and find available help. AARP programs follow national education guidelines and provide reliable, research-based foundational information on topics affecting older adults, supporting lifelong learning and informed decision making at JKV.
