The Willie Nelson Project - Featuring Steve Davis, Joe Fritz, Jerry Bravo, Martin Sensiper, and Special Guests

Presented at Ormond Beach Performing Arts Center
Saturday, August 15, 6:15 p.m. BUS $5

The Willie Nelson Project is a reflection on music from a bygone era that continues to resonate in Willie's "Stardust Album." When he proposed creating the album, his bold decision to record the Stardust album in 1978 surprised many in the music industry. At the time, Nelson was primarily known as a country artist, and his suggestion to compile a collection of classic American pop standards like "Blue Skies" and "All of Me" seemed highly unconventional. Inspired by his personal love for these timeless melodies, which he had cherished since childhood, Nelson wanted to give them his unique interpretation. Despite the advice of skeptics, he collaborated with producer Booker T. Jones to craft a sound that was both intimate and genre-defying, seamlessly blending country warmth with a soft, jazzy elegance. Sign up Deadline: Friday, July 17.
